

A LIST OF THE PRIZES IN THE MUSEUM LOTTERY.

Shewing the Order of Drawing, comparative Value of the Tickets and Mode of Determination by the SCHEME of the STATE LOTTERY of 1772.

IF that of the Year 1774 should differ, the SCHEME of the MUSEUM LOTTERY will be altered to correspond in like Manner therewith. Should there be no STATE LOTTERY in the present Year 1774, the MUSEUM LOTTERY shall be drawn in GUILDHALL, or in some public Place near the Royal Exchange, in the STATE LOTTERY WHEELS, under the Management and Direction of Commissioners who have assisted in drawing one or more of the STATE LOTTERIES, in the same Manner as the STATE LOTTERIES are usually drawn and conducted, and within three Months of the Time which has been usually set apart for drawing the STATE LOTTERY.

MUSEUM LOTTERY.

2 Prizes of	5000	—	10000
2 ditto	3000	—	6000
4 ditto	1500	—	18000
8 ditto	1500	—	13500
18 ditto	750	—	23400
52 ditto	450	—	30000
100 ditto	300	—	31800
212 ditto	150	—	100
2 ditto	50	—	200
2 first drawn	100	—	1500
2 last ditto	750	—

12000 Tickets of Admission, at 10s. 6d. each 63000

The above PRIZES amount to £. 197500

N. B. The original Price of the Tickets, instead of ONE GUINEA, should have been ONE POUND TWELVE SHILLINGS and ELEVEN PENCE each, to produce (as in all former Lotteries) the Amount of the PRIZES.

Whereas the Produce of

60000 Tickets, marked A
60000 Ditto — B

120000 at 1l. 1s 126000
71500

The Balance therefore is in Favour of the ADVENTURERS

£. 197500

Or Eleven Shillings and Eleven Pence on each Ticket, by which every intelligent Person will observe the superior Advantages of this LOTTERY to the present early Purchasers of Tickets therein, as the Instant they are out of Mr. Cox's Hands, they will be raised to the full Price.

The Bust of her Imperial Majesty the Empress of Russia, and the brilliant Ear-rings, which are shewn at every Exhibition of the Museum, are not (as has been by Mistake represented) separate Prizes, but actually constitute ONE SINGLE PRIZE of FIVE THOUSAND POUNDS.

*. The Prizes of the State Lottery 1772, exclusive of those of Twenty and Fifty Pounds, amounted to

Those of the present Museum Lottery amount to 190000
197500

The Tickets of the former at 13l. of the latter at 1l. 1s. each.

N. B. By placing the Numbers of the Tickets drawn against each Prize, also the Day of the Month when drawn, the Determination of the MUSEUM by that of the STATE LOTTERY will be exactly known; as per Example.

Day of the Month when each Ticket is drawn.	Numbers of the Tickets.	Prizes in the State Lottery.	Order of Drawing.	Prizes in the Museum Lottery.	Class.	Total Amount of the Prizes.
---	-------------------------	------------------------------	-------------------	-------------------------------	--------	-----------------------------

Dec. 24	No. 27975	20000	2	5000 5000	A B	10000
---------	-----------	-------	---	--------------	--------	-------

So that Number 27975, or any other Number, drawn against the 20000l. Prize in the State Lottery is in the Museum Lottery 5000 A or TEN THOUSAND POUNDS TO BE PAID IN CASH, without any Deduction, within three Months after the drawing of the Lottery.

During the Drawing of the Lottery regular Lists of the Prizes drawn shall be printed in the Daily Papers.

Persons at a Distance from London who are pleased to send (Post paid) to the Museum Lottery Office in Shoe Lane, shall immediately have their Orders for Tickets complied with on Receipt of good Bills for the same.

LOTTERY TICKETS with Admissions for one or two Persons, to be had at the Office of the Museum in Spring Gardens, at No. 104, in Shoe Lane, and at the Office granted by the City of London to Mr. COX under the Statue of QUEEN ELIZABETH, the East End of St. Dunstan's Church, Fleet Street.

A DESCRIPTIVE INVENTORY of the MUSEUM, with a Model of the fine Pair of BRILLIANT EAR-RINGS will be given to every Purchaser of LOTTERY TICKETS.—SCHEMES of the LOTTERY, and LISTS of the PRIZES Gratis.

As the Museum now more than ever engages the Attention of all Ranks, both in the scientific and great Worlds, Mr. Cox respectfully requests that such of the Nobility and Gentry, as propose to inspect the very extraordinary Improvements he has made to the former Collection, will honour him with their Company as speedily as possible, otherwise it will not be in his Power to accommodate them with the Sight, agreeably to his Wishes, before the next shutting of the Museum.

The EXHIBITION of the MUSEUM will be made every Day (Sunday excepted) at the Hours of Twelve at Noon, and Seven in the Evening.